Enjoy Summer at the Highest Tent in the Emirates... Moonlight Tent at Carlton Downtown Dubai

Summer is in full swing and if you missed out during Ramadan on experiencing the highest tent in the Emirates at the new Carlton Downtown Dubai, you still have a chance to do so. The stunning Moonlight tent, perched on the 47th floor, will remain open until the end of September 2017.

The Moonlight Tent is the perfect place to spend time with your family and friends. Enjoy the diverse menu offering Arabic specialities, freshly prepared mezza's and grills, and international favourites. Offering a unique Shisha menu and exceptional service coupled with 360 views of the city's majestic skyline and the iconic Burj Khalifa, Carlton Downtown is the only place to be this summer.

Mr. Hosni A. Hadi, CEO of Carlton Hotel Management Group, said, "Our Ramadan tent was hugely successful and owing to its popularity we have decided to keep it open until the end of September. It is a lovely venue for both our in-house guests and visitors to relax and unwind in an atmospheric setting during the long summer evenings with great food and magical Burj Khalifa views. Guests can sit both indoor and outdoor by the pool depending on their mood."

Opening Hours: Daily from 4pm to 2:30am
